Adult Bible Study

*“If You Want to Walk on Water,
You Have to Get Out of The Boat”*

TEACHERS: Katharyn Gray & Cynthia Mulkey

Open To: Men and Women
Room: Adult Classroom
First Class: May 4, 2008

In this class, the author identifies the skills essential to “water-walking” in faith with God: discerning God’s call, transcending fear, risking faith, managing failure, and trusting God. The class uses biblical examples to show that on the risky waters of faith, Jesus is waiting to meet you in a way that will change you forever, deepen your character and your trust in God.

GRIEF/LOSS WORKSHOPS

June 7 – June 28, 2008
Saturdays 12 noon – 2 p.m.

Adult Class

“Grief/Loss Workshops”

FACILITATOR: BERNICE BRIGHT DICKEY

Open To: Men and Women
Room: Conference Room
First Class: June 7, 2008

These workshops are designed to help students process their grief and/or loss from the perspective of a God whose central characteristic is love—whose plans for you are not meant to harm you. The workshops offer participants hope for themselves and acceptance of their loss, with a focus on positioning them to move forward. Workshops are customized for the students who are actually attending.
